The Confirmation Protocols

4. In addition to the dates and deadlines listed above, the following procedures shall govern the Confirmation Proceedings:

- a. Protective Order. The Protective Order entered by the Court, as amended from time to time, shall govern all discovery in connection with the Confirmation Proceedings. The currently operative Protective Order is the Third Amended Protective Order [ECF No. 1935].
- b. Document Reserve for Confirmation. As of the date of the entry of this Order, the Debtors will establish a document reserve (the "Document Reserve for Confirmation"). The Debtors will deposit into the reserve (i) non-privileged materials the Debtors have produced in these Chapter 11 Cases, including, without limitation, materials the Debtors have produced in response to requests from the Creditors' Committee and Non-Consenting States Group and non-privileged materials the Debtors have produced in the MDL and other ~~pre-petition~~prepetition civil litigation; (ii) transcripts of depositions of the Debtors' current and former employees, directors, officers, and advisors, taken in prepetition civil litigation or in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases; (iii) documents and information the Debtors determine to be potentially relevant to the Confirmation Proceedings; and (iv) any documents produced by any party in connection with the Confirmation Proceedings. For the avoidance of doubt, any material that includes or reflects any type of confidentiality designation, whether pursuant to a protective order in any ~~pre-petition~~prepetition civil litigation or in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases, is governed by the Protective Order without any need to re-designate such material.
- c. Additional Discovery Requests. Any Requesting Party that propounds a request for additional document or testimonial discovery must (i) represent that the Requesting Party has conducted a reasonable search of the Document Reserve for Confirmation and believes, based on such reasonable search, that the documents, information, or testimony it seeks is not available in the Document Reserve for Confirmation; and (ii) state and explain the basis for the Requesting Party's good faith belief that the additional discovery it seeks is relevant to the Confirmation Proceedings. For the avoidance of doubt, this paragraph 4(c) does not apply to discovery requests directed to parties that have not produced documents or transcripts of testimony to the Document Reserve for Confirmation by the time of such request.

- d. Discovery Dispute Resolution. In the event of a dispute with respect to one or more discovery requests, counsel for the Producing Party and for the Requesting Party shall promptly meet and confer in good faith to attempt to resolve the dispute. If, notwithstanding their good faith efforts to do so, such Parties are unable to resolve such discovery dispute, the Party wishing to bring the dispute to the Court shall promptly inform the Court by emailed letter, no longer than two single-spaced pages in length, of the nature of the dispute and shall request a telephonic discovery conference. If the opposing Party wishes to respond, it must respond by emailed letter, no longer than two single-spaced pages in length, within two business days. At the conference, the Parties to the dispute must be prepared to discuss with the Court all efforts to resolve such dispute.
- e. Limitations on Interrogatories and Requests for Admission. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, no Requesting Party shall serve any interrogatories or requests for admission in connection with the Confirmation Proceedings.
- f. Assertions of Privilege. If any Producing Party withholds or redacts any materials on the grounds of privilege, work product, or any other type of protection or immunity from disclosure, such Producing Party shall promptly provide a categorical privilege log consistent with the Protective Order in these Chapter 11 Cases, which shall be placed in the Document Reserve for Confirmation. To the extent such materials were previously withheld or redacted on the grounds of privilege, work product, or any other type of protection or immunity from disclosure, in connection with production in the MDL, in other pre-petition civil litigations, or in these Chapter 11 Cases, such prior determinations (as reflected in designations on the materials themselves or in the relevant privilege log(s)) control and are not open to reconsideration. A Producing Party shall provide its initial privilege log(s) no later than the date on which it substantially completes production of documents in response to ~~document requests~~ Document Requests.
- g. Testimony. ~~Only~~ Except with respect to adverse witnesses compelled to testify by subpoena, only persons for whom a witness declaration has been delivered, filed, and served will be allowed to testify. All witnesses for whom witness declarations are timely delivered, filed, and served shall be present and governed by the Virtual Procedures Order to testify remotely on cross examination and re-direct at the Confirmation Hearing. The only live testimony that will be taken at trial will consist of ~~cross-examination~~cross-examination and redirect examination, as necessary.

- h. Expert Discovery. Any expert retained or specially employed to provide expert testimony in connection with the Confirmation Proceedings shall submit an expert report that satisfies the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(2)(B) (made applicable by Bankruptcy Rule 7026), and, on or before the deadline provided by this Order, shall produce the expert materials required to be disclosed by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26 (made applicable by Bankruptcy Rule 7026). An expert's report(s) shall constitute that expert's direct testimony. Parties shall have the right to amend or supplement such direct testimony, solely to respond to information disclosed or opinions expressed after the date of such expert's report(s), by written declaration exchanged and submitted by the deadlines provided by this Order. No drafts of any part of any report or declaration of any expert will be subject to production or other disclosure. This protection is in addition to, and does not limit or replace, the protections of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(4)(B) (applicable here under Bankruptcy Rule 7026).
- i. Extension of Deadlines. Any deadline set forth above, except the Confirmation Hearing, may be extended without order of the Court upon the written consent of Debtors or, if the Debtors are the party subject to the deadline, the party to which the subject of the deadline is owed, which consent may be granted via email.
- j. Effect of the Case Management Procedures. The Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules, Local Bankruptcy Rules for the Southern District of New York (the "Local Rules"), and the operative Second Amended Order Establishing Certain Notice, Case Management, and Administrative Procedures [ECF No. 498] apply to these Confirmation Proceedings. To the extent there is a conflict between any of the foregoing and this Order, this Order shall govern in all respects.

5. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Order, the Disclosure Statement or the Plan, with respect to any action, objection or motion (made through the Plan or otherwise) by the Debtors or any other creditor or equity holder seeking to reduce, disallow, estimate or subordinate any Co-Defendant Claim in the Chapter 11 Cases (any such action, objection or motion, a "Co-Defendant Claim Objection"): (a) such Co-Defendant Claim Objection shall not be subject to this Order, and (b) the Debtors and the affected claimant(s) shall meet and confer in good faith to reach an agreement on the appropriate extent, manner and schedule for discovery and proceedings (including the timing of any hearing) governing such Co-Defendant Claim Objection, or if an agreement on such issues cannot be reached, the parties shall schedule a hearing for such issues to be determined by the Court; provided, however, that nothing in this paragraph shall affect an objection made in accordance with, and governed by, the Order Approving (I) Omnibus Claims Objection Procedures, (II) Omnibus Claims Settlement Procedures and (III) Omnibus Claims Hearing Procedures [ECF No. 2696]. Nothing contained in this Order shall be construed as consent by any holder of a Co-Defendant Claim to the adjudication of any Co-Defendant Claim Objection at the Confirmation Hearing, be construed as a waiver of any rights of a holder of a Co-Defendant Claim concerning the adjudication of its Co-Defendant Claims or any Co-Defendant Claim Objections, and shall not prejudice the rights of the holder of a Co-Defendant Claim to assert that any Co-Defendant Claim Objection should not be heard at the Confirmation Hearing set by this Order, or any other date that may be set for the Confirmation Hearing. All rights of any holder of a Co-Defendant Claim to object to any proposed schedule governing a Co-Defendant Claim Objection, including on the ground that such Co-Defendant Claim Objection should not be heard at the Confirmation Hearing or that the Confirmation Hearing should be adjourned, are hereby preserved.

6. ~~5.~~ Notice of this Order will be provided as to (a) the entities on the Master Service List (as defined in the Second Amended Order Establishing Certain Notice, Case Management, and Administrative Procedures entered on November 18, 2019 [ECF No. 498] and available on the Debtors' case website at <https://restructuring.primeclerk.com/purduepharma>) and (b) any person or entity with a particularized interest in the subject matter of this Motion (the "Notice Parties"). No further notice shall be required.

| 7. ~~6.~~ The Debtors are authorized to take all reasonable actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Order.

| 8. ~~7.~~ This Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Order.

SO ORDERED.
